TO : Chief, Foreign Division "M"

DATE: 13 JULY 1951

FROM : Chief of Station, Karlsruhe 9/14

SUBJECT: GENERAL--

SPECIFIC-- CAUTERY-8 - Project Summary

Ref : MB-A-868L, 8685

1. Subject, whose case officer is CAUTERY-4, has been given the exclusive assignment of gathering REBERND leads in the Leipzig area.
2. Subject is a 65 year old Balt, employed as bookkeeper by a "Soviet Defense Construction Staff" charged with Soviet Army construction projects in the Soviet Zone. He meets Soviet officials professionally and, owing to his linguistic proficiency, has been able to establish a more than casual relationship with some of them.
3. Subject has been reporting to us on a construction project in the Neu-haldensleben-Letalingen area North of Magdeburg. The reports received favorable comments from ID EUCOM.
4. For the first time on 27 May, subject brought, at our behest, his wife. This was suggested because it was felt that should he for any reason be unable to come to Berlin, his wife could serve as a go-between. She struck CAUTERY-4 as more resourceful and energetic than her husband, whom he characterizes as "overly fearful to the point of total submissiveness".
5. On his monthly visits to Berlin, subject drives in his car to Potsdam, whence he takes the S-Bahn to Berlin.
6. Subject is intent upon leaving the Soviet Zone and has been informed by us that satisfactory performance in the REBERND field will entitle him to our support.
7. Subject is not paid a regular salary, but receives reimbursement for his travelling expenses. The average monthly cost of 50 DM West is charged to CAUTERY.
